MONSTER BLOCK

Soils rich in quartz and mica, located on a southern slope at the foot of Chile's Coastal Range deliver a fresh and elegant wine.

HARVEST 2014

Great quality fruit due to low yields and Mediterranean climate, with dry growing conditions during spring and summer and wide thermal amplitude between day and night. Slow ripening of the grapes enabled them to preserve their freshness, flavor, aroma, and an elegant acidity.

THE WINE

Refreshing, juicy palate, abundant in cherry and raspberry with round, silky tannins.

WINEMAKER'S NOTE

A portion of the fruit undergoes whole-cluster fermentation to increase structure and complexity. Ritual Pinot Noir is fermented with wild yeasts, resulting in expressive wines that truly reflect their place of origin. 3072 bottles.
